1136 Bungendore Road, Bywong

A place in the country.

Strolling through the garden you are captivated by rolling hills, swimming ducks and sun baking turtles. At this lovely country home you can literally sit back and enjoy well established gardens, and acres of land to run some horses. There is various raised vegetable gardens ,and plenty of shedding to house machinery as well as 8 car garaging with fantastic workshop space.

The Residence

Sun filled living areas are complimented by double glazed windows, framing the sensational seasonal colours this wonderful garden has to offer. A huge rumpus room (7.5m x 4.7m) is perfect for the home cinema or pool table. The lounge room has a combustion fireplace and flows outside to the covered entertaining area.

The kitchen and dining is open plan. A freshly renovated kitchen has an abundance of storage and matching granite bench tops and splash backs. As the home is double brick construction the energy efficiency of the home shows true value.

Three good size bedrooms with built in wardrobes provide personal space for everyone. Just off the master bedroom is a newly renovated bathroom with frameless shower screen and stylish tiling. A highlight window to the north splashes sun through the room.
