

16 Foxlow Street, Captains Flat

Neat as a Pin!

Located close to the general store/post office and renowned restaurant in Captains Flat is 16 Foxlow St. A house that is affordable and neat as a pin.

Move in and do nothing, although the decor is dated in the 1980's the condition is excellent.

There is a open plan kitchen family room. The kitchen has good bench space and plenty of cupboards. A dining space is perfect straight from this area to separate lounge room and is spacious and complete with combustion fireplace which will heat the whole home.

Three bedrooms and a family bathroom like the rest of the home has all just been recently repainted.

If you are looking for a quirky cute cottage with plenty of character but don't want the hassles of up keeping an old run down house this is it!

Double garage with huge bench top is also powered and another room on the property for those that want a cave of sorts.

The yard has vegie gardens, fire pit area and low maintenance lawn. Fully fenced and firewood stacked at the rear for the next year or two.
