48A Butmaroo Street, Bungendore

Historic Church in Bungendore Village.

Are you looking for a tree change? Do you share our Agency's passion for local history? Included in a recently published list of the nation's 10 most desirable sea/tree change locations, Bungendore has it all.

This property truly deserves the use of the word UNIQUE!

Constructed in 1875 as a Presbyterian Church, the later arrival of the rail line through the village required its physical relocation to its current site.

Today it is a stylishly renovated home with two large mezzanine bedrooms. The third bedroom is located in a separate chapel style cottage at the rear of the property boasting a bathroom/laundry and its own private deck overlooking the manicured gardens.

It is in the interior refurbishment that this former Church has undergone a complete transformation into a modern home, which belies its age!

No expense has been spared by the vendor to provide a tasteful dÃ©cor. Soft hued finishes provide a peaceful ambience. Celery pine floorboards, original lead light windows, vaulted ceilings and timber panelling all contribute to the buildings unique charm.

The new kitchen and bathroom blend beautifully with the classical and modern style
