

Bushrangers Hideaway

Bushrangers Hideaway is approx. 380 acres of grazing and timbered land with power and a building entitlement. Harolds Creek runs right through the land which is a really special space on the property perfect for camping, picnics or drop in a fishing line and plate a rainbow trout for lunch.

Currently running cattle the land has plenty of arable land with water for livestock. The soil is mainly granite based with mature open bushland also fit for grazing. There are two dams on open country at the back (northern) of the property and framed by bushland. A bush track connects this back paddock to the Creek and then through to the Front paddock (fronting Harolds Cross road) and are also split by fencing.

There sensational bushland full of wildlife and secret hideaways. In fact, the famous Clark brother bushrangers were said to have a hideaway on this land. There would be years of fun exploring the bushland making your own hideout, or bush cabins for kids and friends to sleep out.

This could be the perfect place to build your country dream home or weekender space as its just over an hour to Canberra and three hours from Sydney.
