112 Gibraltar Street St, Bungendore

Application excepted.

Here's a 3 bedroom, 2 bathrooms, brick home, set amongst the beautiful surroundings of Bungendore that you won't want to miss. This popular little village has all the conveniences you'd find in any larger town, boasting a bank, doctors, chemist, primary school, pre-school, child-care facilities, hardware supplies, police station, petrol station, swimming pool, solicitors, real estate agents, many cafes/restaurants, tourist shops, the woodworks gallery, B&B's, pubs and the new Super IGA.

The home itself is set on a large subdivided block. It has a fully fenced private rear yard and a huge front garden with a shady entertaining patio.

Theres floating flooring throughout and the formal entry, large lounge leading to formal dining, and huge bright kitchen are an entertainers delight. The induction cook top, abundance of counter space and cupboards, and warm wood fire in the breakfast nook, this home is perfect for a family. Additional heating and cooling are provided in the forms of electric heating and a split system a/c unit.

At the far end of the house there are 3 great size bedrooms. The main bedroom has a walk thru robe and renovated ensuite. The second and third bedrooms have built in robes and share a powder room with separate bathroom and toilet amenities. The large, double door garage is ideal not only for car space but for a work shop or boat storage.
