

1/20 Ernest Street, Crestwood

Cottage Full of Charm

Sitting behind a picket fence and hedges and gorgeously landscaped gardens, is the quaint cottage located at 1/20 Ernest Street, Crestwood. A home full of character and charm, this home offers endless opportunity for a first home buyer, downsizer or investor.

Entering the property through the lush front garden with synthetic grass and paved walkway, into the entrance of the home you'll find the first bedroom on your right and the bathroom on the left. The bathroom has recently been completely renovated with new fittings, finishes and a gorgeous claw foot bathtub/shower combo.

Through a single glass French Door, you enter the main living space with fireplace and split system. Off this space is access to the second bedroom. French Doors open up onto a decked entertaining space with hot tub. This outdoor courtyard gives access to the front and back of the home and continues the gorgeous landscaping throughout.

The kitchen is located off the living space. It has recently been updated and gives a contemporary feel, while still keeping the character of the home. There is ample
