5 Forster St St, Bungendore

Glorious Cottage with Sensational Garden.

The aromatic garden is breathtaking and designed by Award Winning Landscape architects Chris and Charlotte Webb. The low maintenance established gardens mix colour and sensational scent all year round. Hundreds of spring bulbs, lavender, roses, silver birch screens, 6 raised vegetable beds, clematis arbours and plenty of cottage style perennials, fruit trees and shrubs.

The Classic Australian style cottage is built by local master buider, Michael Johnson. Comprising 4 bedrooms and study the master bedroom is complete with walk in robe, ensuite, large study and private deck through french doors. The three other bedrooms each have builtin wardrobes and benefit from a three way family bath room.

The interior decoration was recommended by Award Winning interior designer, Terry Brooks. Blending wall colours and window fixtures complementing the lifestyle and comfort of inside and outside living areas. A large family room consists of dining and lounge room. Floor to ceiling windows make the room feel spacious and frame the garden views.

The kitchen over looks the back yard and covered entertaining deck. Open plan to an extra living room, currently used as a play area for the children it could also be a
