Open to offers!!

Quietly positioned in a leafy street this family home has been created as a lifestyle Oasis. From the amazing rock-n-roll 1950's man cave, the pool and spa area, to the beautiful 4 bedroom home. 12 Fiaschi Street will surprise you every corner you take and make you want to stay forever.

The first thing noticeable is how much car accommodation is off street, the property is on a corner therefore has dual road access. This will benefit the multi car family or tradie with trailers, caravans, boats, as there is plenty of extra space for parking.

The residence is nestled amongst established gardens and pathways connecting the various areas surrounding the home. Windows stretch from floor to ceiling and allow plenty of light to living areas and looking out of them, they frame the garden vistas. From the entrance hall, the floor plan opens to living rooms and directs you to the other end of the home where you will find 4 great sized bedrooms.

The L-shaped lounge and dining area is complete with wooden floating floors and flows to the Retro Kitchen. The Kitchen area has a fabulous family room or dining space, these kitchen / family rooms are facing north so are light filled throughout the year.

This modest and comfortable home has 4 bedrooms which provide a lovely space to call your own. The family bathroom is renovated in brown and white tones making it feel spacious and bright. Tiling to the ceiling, a corner bath and venetian blinds inset to the window frame, all create sleek, simple clean lines.

Entertaining at this property is a blast, so much fun with all your friends and family. Kids playing in the pool while you sit in the bubbling spa, dance to the music in the rock-n-roll bar, or work on your vintage car in the cadillac-shack. Variety is a spice of life and here you get plenty of that.

The rock-n-roll bar is converted from the double garage and also has a great storage
